If the Client deems these consequences unreasonable, the parties will consult about this.
- 5.3 The Client will only be obliged to pay for work not included in the Agreement, if this work and the consequences thereof for the agreed price have been agreed on with the Client in advance in Writing and the Client has given a Written order for the work to be performed on the basis of that agreement.

Article 6: Invoicing and payment

- 6.1 Unless agreed otherwise in Writing, the Supplier will only invoice the Client for the Goods and/or Services provided after those Goods and/or Services have been approved. If the Agreement pertains to the provision of continuous, periodic Services, the Supplier will invoice the Services concerned once a month in arrears.

Invoices that do not comply with these requirements will be returned by the Client with the request to supplement any missing data.
- 6.4 If the Client has approved the invoice, it will pay the invoice within 30 days of the invoice date and by the end of the month. If the invoice did not comply with the requirements set in Article 6.3, this period will commence on the first day of the month following the day on which the Client receives a proper invoice from the Supplier.

- 6.5 If it has been agreed that the Client will pay in advance, the Client will be entitled to require that the Supplier, as security for the repayment of that advance payment, provides an unconditional and irrevocable bank guarantee at its own expense issued by a bank that is acceptable to the Client.
- 6.6 Payment by the Client does not in any way whatsoever constitute a waiver of rights.
- 6.7 The Client is authorised to set off the amounts that it owes the Supplier against the amounts that it (and/or other companies that belong to the same group as the Client) has to claim from the Supplier (and/or from other companies that belong to the same group as the Supplier). If, in the event of setoff, amounts are in different currencies, the Supplier will determine in which currency setoff will be made. Conversion will be at the official rate applicable on the date on which payment is due according to the invoices in question.

Article 7: Delivery

- 7.1 Unless agreed otherwise in Writing, delivery will take place DDP (INCOTERMS 2020) at the agreed place of delivery. The Supplier may only deliver early or in batches if the Client has given its Written permission for this.
- 7.2 The agreed time of delivery by the Supplier is of essential importance to the Client. Accordingly, the Supplier will be in default without further notice of default in case of late delivery.
- 7.3 The Supplier must immediately inform the Client in Writing of any imminent failure to meet the agreed time of delivery.

- 7.6 Goods must be packaged properly and adequately and, if necessary, be marked with the Client's additional instructions, so that they reach the place of destination and are received in good condition.
- 7.7 The Goods to be delivered should include a packing list. The packing list should state the name of the customer, the order and item number stated by the Client, the quantity and correct description of the Goods in question.
- 7.8 All packaging, excluding return packaging, will become the property of the Client upon delivery, unless the Client waives this option. The Supplier must pay for the costs of returning the packaging or return packaging.

Article 8: Guarantees

- 8.1 The Supplier guarantees for a period of at least 12 months after delivery: (i) that all delivered Goods are suitable for the purpose for which they are intended, if this designated use was communicated to it or could otherwise reasonably be known to it; (ii) that these are in accordance with the agreed specifications and approved samples; (iii) that the Goods have been manufactured to a high standard, are of good quality and free from construction or manufacturing faults and/or faults in the material; and (iv) that the Goods and their operation comply with mandatory provisions, among other things pertaining to health, safety, environmental hygiene and electromagnetic breakdowns, applicable in the country that the Goods are intended for, if it was informed of this destination or should otherwise reasonably be familiar with it.

- 8.2 If the Agreement pertains or also pertains to the delivery of Services, this will take place in a professional manner and to a high standard. The Supplier will carry out the Services with a sufficient or agreed number of persons and quantities of material, parts, devices and equipment, with the appropriate or agreed qualifications or quality. The Supplier guarantees that the Services will be performed in accordance with the agreed requirements and that the result intended by the Agreement will be achieved.

- 8.3 If the Client discovers that the Goods and/or Services provided by the Supplier do not conform to the guarantees included in Articles 8.1 and 8.2, the Client will inform the Supplier of this as soon as possible in Writing. If the Supplier does not fulfil this obligation, the Client will be entitled, at the Supplier's expense, to purchase the necessary Goods from a third party and/or to have the necessary Services performed by a third party, all without prejudice to all other options available to the Client pursuant to the Agreement or the law.

Article 9: Inspection

- 9.1 The Client is authorised, but not obliged, to inspect the Goods and/or Services, as well as the equipment and material used in the performance of the Agreement, or have these inspected, both prior to and after the delivery or provision thereof. The inspection itself does not constitute delivery, provision, purchase or acceptance of those Goods and/or Services.
- 9.2 The Supplier will cooperate in the inspection at no cost and will provide the Client or its representative access on demand to the place where the Goods are manufactured or stored or where the Services are performed. The Supplier will furthermore provide the Client or its representative with all information that the Client reasonably requires to assess whether the Supplier is fulfilling its obligations pursuant to the Agreement.
- 9.3 The provisions of Article 8.3 of these Conditions will apply in case of rejection.
- 9.4 At its discretion, the Client will either return rejected Goods to the Supplier or retain these until the Supplier has given the Client further instructions in that respect. Rejected Goods will be at the Supplier's risk from the time that the notification referred to above has been sent to the Supplier. The ownership of the rejected Goods will rest with the Supplier again from the date of the notification referred to above. On the Client's demand, the Supplier will also repay immediately and in full all amounts paid in advance with respect to those rejected Goods and/or Services.

Article 10: Personnel

- 10.1 Personnel engaged by the Supplier in the performance of the Agreement will comply with the special requirements set by the Client and, in the absence thereof, the general requirements of craftsmanship and expertise. In that case, the Supplier will be obliged to replace the personnel.

- 10.4 Prior to the start of the performance of the Agreement, the Supplier and its personnel must acquaint themselves with the contents of the rules and regulations that apply to the Client's site and buildings, among other things with respect to safety, health and the environment, and must act accordingly.
- 10.5 The Supplier guarantees towards the Client that employee's insurance contributions, VAT and income tax (including national insurance) will be paid on time. The Client will always have the right to pay the Supplier the amounts in question, which the Client could be severally liable for pursuant to the Dutch Wages and Salaries Tax and National Insurance Contributions (Liability of Subcontractors) Act, by payment into its guarantee account within the meaning of this Act. The Client will also be entitled to withhold the amounts in question from the price owed to the Supplier and use these to pay the industrial insurance board concerned or the collector of direct taxes directly on the Supplier's behalf. This transfer and/or payment will discharge the Client vis-à-vis the Supplier for the amounts in question.

Article 11: Ownership

- 11.1 All the Production Tools and all materials and parts that the Client has made available to the Supplier for the performance of the Agreement will remain the Client's property.

- 11.3 The Supplier will retain as borrower for the Client the Production Tools and the materials and parts that are owned by the Client. In that respect, the Supplier will ensure that the Production Tools and/or materials and parts are marked in such a manner that it is clear to third parties that the Client is the owner. The Supplier will also keep these separated from its own items and insure them adequately against loss, damage or theft.
- 11.4 If the Agreement pertains to the treatment of materials made available by the Client and the Supplier fails to fulfil its obligations in that respect to such an extent that the materials can no longer be used, the Supplier must reimburse the Client for the materials, without prejudice to all other rights that the Client may have pursuant to this Agreement or the law.
- 11.5 The Client will at all times and in all circumstances reserve the right to take back its property - regardless of whether this has already been treated or used by the Supplier - against reimbursement of any treatment costs due by the Client.

- 11.6 The Supplier will use the Production Tools, materials and parts owned by the Client and will not allow these to be used by or for third parties, for or in connection with any purpose other than the performance of the Agreement.

Article 12: Intellectual property

- 12.1 Unless agreed otherwise in Writing, the intellectual property rights relating to inventions, designs, data collections, drawings, recommendations, work instructions and other works that the Supplier has developed or manufactured in the performance of the Agreement will be vested in the Client. Only the Client will have the right to make the applications and registrations necessary to protect those rights.
- 12.2 By entering into this Agreement, the Supplier transfers the rights referred to in Article 12.1 to the Client. In so far as required by law, the Supplier will cooperate in the transfer of the rights in question on the Client's demand.
- 12.3 The Supplier guarantees towards the Client that it has made arrangements with its employees or third parties engaged by it that ensure that the rights referred to in Article 12.1 can be transferred freely to the Client.
- 12.4 The Supplier will indemnify the Client against third-party claims that are based on the allegation that the Goods and/or Services provided by the Supplier infringe the intellectual property rights of such third parties.

Article 13: Secrecy

The Supplier will solely use all data and information received orally or in Writing from the Client for the performance of the Agreement. The Client will retain ownership of all this data and information, which, to the extent in Written form, must be returned to the Client immediately on request, including any copies thereof. The Supplier will be obliged to observe absolute secrecy with respect to all of this data and information and it will not refer to this data and information or the fact that it makes or has made deliveries to the Client in publications, advertisements or otherwise in verbal or Written form, unless it has the Client's prior Written consent.

Article 14: Insurance

With respect to its liability vis-à-vis the Client, the Supplier will take out adequate insurance and maintain this insurance pursuant to the Agreement or the law and will furthermore insure and keep insured all insurable risks in its business operations on all regular conditions. At the Client's request, the Supplier will immediately submit a certified copy of its insurance policies and proof of premium payment.

Article 15: Termination, notice of termination

- 15.1 If the Supplier does not, not in due time or not properly fulfil any obligation pursuant to the Agreement (if fulfilment is not permanently impossible: in spite of demands stating a reasonable period of time for fulfilment), as well as in the event of the suspension of payments, liquidation, a guardianship order or winding-up of the Supplier's company, or a petition for any of the above, the Client will be entitled, without judicial intervention and without notice of default, to terminate the Agreement or part of it by means of a mere Written statement.

- 15.2 If the Agreement pertains to a continuous or recurring provision of Goods and/or Services, the Client will at all times be entitled to terminate the Agreement with due observance of a notice period of one (1) month, without being obliged to pay any compensation.
- 15.3 If the Agreement pertains to the performance of Services and was entered into for a certain project, the Client will also be entitled to terminate the Agreement with due observance of a notice period of one (1) month. In that case, the Client will be obliged to pay a proportionate part of the agreed price.
- 15.4 Upon termination of the Agreement pursuant to this Article 15, the Supplier will be obliged to comply with a request by the Client to hand over all that the Supplier developed or manufactured for the Client within the scope of the Agreement, even if this is not ready yet.

Article 16: Disputes and applicable law

- 16.1 Dutch law is applicable to all Agreements to which these Conditions apply either wholly or partially. The provisions of the Vienna Sales Convention (CISG) are explicitly excluded.
- 16.2 Disputes between the parties, including those that are only considered disputes by one of the parties, will be solved in consultation as far as possible. If the parties cannot reach a solution, all disputes arising from requests, offers, orders and Agreements, by whatever name, will be settled by the court of competent jurisdiction in the district where the Client's business has its registered office.

Article 17: Concluding provisions

- 17.1 During the term of the Agreement and for a period of one year following its termination, the Supplier will, only after the Client has given its prior Written consent, hire workers and/or other employees of the Client who were involved in the performance of the Agreement or otherwise cause them to work for it either directly or indirectly. Employees will be understood to mean employees who were in an employment relationship with the Client less than 6 months earlier.
- 17.2 In the event of a violation of Article 17.1, the Supplier will owe an immediately due and payable penalty of EUR 20.000 for each violation and EUR 1.000 for each day that a violation continues. This penalty will not affect the right to full compensation in accordance with the statutory provisions.
- 17.3 Only with the prior consent of the Client will the Supplier be entitled to outsource its work under the Agreement to third parties. Regardless of this consent, the Supplier will remain liable for the proper fulfilment of the Agreement in due time.
- 17.4 The rights and obligations arising from the Agreement for the Supplier cannot be transferred.
